

PUBLICATIONS

Dr. Kathleen YJ Low

Assistant Professor of International Business

EBS Universität für Wirtschaft und Recht // EBS Business School
Department of Management and Economics
Rheingaustraße 1, 65375 Oestrich-Winkel

Monographs:

- Low, Y.J., 2016. Institutional change, absorptive capacity, and knowledge transfer to emerging economy firms: a new perspective on the role of the MNE in development. Dissertation. Vienna University of Economics and Business (WU Wien)

Working Papers:

- "The Economic Sociology of Market Failure and Institutional Change: Toward a Broader View of the MNE as Agent of Change" with James Robins
- "Corruption as Non-market Strategy: an Organizational-Economic Approach" with Bryan Husted and James Robins
- "Investing in Knowledge: the role of relationship-specific human capital in knowledge transfer for young Chinese firms" with James Robins
- "Absorptive Capacity of Emerging Market Firms: Rationalization, Professionalism and Isomorphism" with Jonathan Doh and James Robins
- "Structure and Conflict in International Joint Ventures: an interdisciplinary approach to the effects of social and organizational structure on conflict within IJVs" with James Robins and Steven Lui

Refereed Journals:

- Low, Y.J & Elsen Ho, Y.C. 2016. A Knowledge-based Theory of the Multinational Economic Organization. Long Range Planning, 49: 641-647 (Lead Article)
- Kudlak, R. & Low, Y.J. 2015. Special Issues Dedicated to CSR and Corporate Sustainability: A Review and Commentary. Long Range Planning, 48: 215-227
- Low, Y.J & Robins J.A. 2014. Finding Knowledge: The Role of Reputation in Knowledge-Transfer to Chinese Companies. Long Range Planning, 47: 353-364
- Low, Y.J, Doh, J, & Robins, J.A. 2016. Absorptive Capacity of Emerging Market Firms: Rationalization, Professionalism and Isomorphism. Academy of Management Proceedings 2016...